FREE BUSINESS OWNERS NETWORKING EVENT

Business owners from Dublin and surrounding areas gathered in Bewley's hotel on Wednesday last for the first of a series of speed networking events, organised by SalesAcademy.ie.

Among the speakers were, Conor Woods, Partner with Russell Brennan Keane, who detailed of some of the innovative practical solutions business owners are adopting to battle the recession. Commenting after the event Conor said "It was great to see so many business owners focusing on the business development side of their business and building on their network of contacts in such challenging times. Business Development is vital now more so than ever and innovative business owners will reap the benefits in the long run by attending events like this".

Attendees were given the opportunity to network and were provided with valuable networking techniques and advice on how to survive in these tough times.

If you would like to speak to Conor in confidence or would like further information please call 01 6440100 or email cwoods@rbk.ie.

To register for the next event please contact Bob Flynn from SalesAcademy.ie on 01 297 3445 or email info@salesacademy.ie.
